

About us

PSS is a manufacturer and wholesale distributor of pallet racking , shelving systems and light duty cantilever along with a host of protection products for these systems.

With almost 40 years of experience in the manufacturer of storage systems and the logistics business, PSS are able to supply a variety of systems from shelving, through to pallet racking and mezzanine storage areas.

When you need help with storage design or installation, call the PSS Service Helpline. You'll be working with experts, near you, never more than a phone call away. Every PSS system can be tailored to your exact storage and logistics needs, and a layout created by our expert Technical drawing team using the latest in CAD software.

In order to provide support local to you PSS works in partnership with a UK network of Distributors. To find your nearest distributor simply contact us. These distributors demonstrate the highest levels of service and knowledge in all aspects of their business and can provide you with help and advice on your storage requirements as well as providing fast delivery of all PSS products.

If you are a previous Planned Storage Systems or Hi-Lo user we can also provide advice and support to help you in sourcing spares for your storage systems.

PSS can also assist you with all of your warehouse health and safety obligations ensuring you meet the latest legislation. We can arrange rack inspections carried out by a trained and certified Rack Inspectors so that you will have the peace of mind you are taking all the necessary steps to ensure your employees safety in your warehouse environment. Call today to arrange a rack inspection. PSS products save space, save time, save money. And never compromise.

With PSS, you've got storage your storage solved!

Why not contact us?